

映画祭

THE JAPAN-AMERICA SOCIETY OF NORTHWEST FLORIDA PRESENTS

Japanese Film Festival

2014

Friday, November 14 6-11PM

@ PENSACOLA CULTURAL CENTER

Why Don't You Play In Hell?

Tarantino-esque
Ode to yakuza movies.
A bloody blast.

6:30PM

Love Hotel

Documentary
On pay-by-the-hour hotels.
Sexy but sweet.

9:00PM

Friday night attendees can purchase an optional wristband to enjoy reserved seating & Japanese hors d'oeuvres from nom

SUSHI IZAKAYA

$5 $20 RSVP
JAS member non-member info@jasnwfl.org

Saturday, November 15 10AM-4PM

@ WEST FLORIDA PUBLIC LIBRARY MAIN BRANCH

Wolf Children (PG)

Half-werewolf kids choose:
Civilization or nature?
Anime fable.

10:30AM

A Letter to Momo (PG)

Three imps help Momo
Understand father's letter.
Life overcomes grief.

12:30PM

Patema Inverted (PG-13)

Two worlds, upside-down.
Lovers fall for each other
But will they fall up?

2:30PM

In celebration of the Japanese holiday
"Shichi-Go-San" (7-5-3)

Saturday will be a family-friendly day of movies and children's activities.

All movies presented in Japanese with English subtitles.
Please supervise children at all times.

Sunday, November 16 2-7PM

@ TREE HOUSE CINEMA GULF BREEZE

JAPAN-AMERICA SOCIETY OF NORTHWEST FLORIDA

Uzumasa Limelight

Chanbara films fade.
Aging actor teaches craft:
How to die onscreen.

2:00PM

Unforgiven

Eastwood film remade.
Watanabe hunts bounties.
Samurai Western.

4:30PM

SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER

CHARLES EXLEY

Assistant Professor of Modern Japanese Literature & Film
at the University of Pittsburgh

FREE ADMISSION // jasnwfl.org // f /jasnwfl